

INTERNATIONAL
YOUTH
SILENT
FILM FESTIVAL

Call for entries:

We are excited to announce the 10th Annual International Youth Silent Film Festival, a worldwide short silent film competition which showcases the talents of student filmmakers twenty years of age or younger.

The Detroit Regional competition will be held on Saturday, April 4, 2020 at the Redford Theatre in Detroit, Michigan where screening finalists will have their films shown with live theatre organ accompaniment. Participants will also compete for cash prizes of $1,000 for first, $500 for second and $250 for third. On June 7, 2020 the official selections for the International Award Show will be screened at the Hollywood Theatre in Portland, Oregon and will include only the first and second place films from the Detroit Regionals.

We ask that you explore the web site for this exciting event at

THERE ARE NO FEES TO PARTICIPATE

SUBMISSION DEADLINE IS FEBRUARY 17, 2020

Filmmakers must create a three-minute silent movie using one of ten musical themes provided by the festival. To hear the themes, visit <http://www.makesilentfilm.com/how-to-enter.html>. Films are scored on five criteria: story, cinematography, editing, directing and production design. Scoring guidelines may be found at http://www.makesilentfilm.com/assets/documents/Jury_Scoring_Guidelines.pdf.

We hope all young people with interest in filmmaking, acting, writing, and the arts take advantage of this unique opportunity to participate in this very special event.

Visit our web site NOW to view past winning films, download our free curriculum, learn about our judges, listen and download the musical themes to be used with film submissions, and much, much more.

Submit online at www.makesilentfilm.com
